

2009 FORD/CROWN POLICE PACKAGES

THE VISIBILITY PACKAGES

- 65W includes all components in the Complete Package (68P)
 - 65P includes all components in Base Package (65A)
 - Each package is stand-alone for 2009.
 - Both provide a collection of emergency lighting equipment.
 - Provides clear and appropriate identification of an emergency vehicle.
 - Complies with SAE standards J-859 and J-1113.
 - SAE is a 90-year-old organization that writes and maintains standards for the automotive and aerospace industries for North American continent.
 - A reference base for all manufacturers.
 - Used in Federal Motor Vehicle Standards. (FMVSS)
- ★ You may obtain further information at www.sae.org
-

2009 FORD/CROWN POLICE PACKAGES

THE VISIBILITY PACKAGES (cont'd)

- A vehicle in motion should always also have a primary lighting system, for example, a lightbar.
 - Refer to SAE J-2498 – the most current comprehensive standard for Emergency Vehicle Lighting.
 - Contact your lighting supplier for documentation and application of SAE standards.
 - Remember: Current standards define “Best Practices”.
 - “Best Practices” improve safety for officers.
 - “Best Practices” improve quality and durability of equipment and systems.
-

2009 FORD/CROWN POLICE PACKAGES

CROWN POLICE PACKAGES

- Fully comply with both Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards, and SAE Emergency Lighting Standards.
 - FMVSS 108 can be accessed at website of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration at: www.nhtsa.gov
 - Most manufacturer safety bulletins, recalls, service bulletins, and vehicle safety comparisons are also available here.
-